NEWS OF THE DAY.

Vienna correspondent sick from over-work.

Our exchange, the London Times, presents a neat appearance this week.

FERGUSON will hereafter be furnished to theological students free of charge.

Plenty of rain and wind lately: de gustibus non disputandum.

It is healthy to saw a cord of wood, before breakfast, these days.

It dont pay to run half a square, to speak to a friend, and then stand still and let him go into a house without saying a word

Say any thing you please, only see who you are talking to.

They start out.

What shall we do with the swill now?

Every body must buy a pig to eat up his swill.

At an immense expense, and for the sole purpose of making the public come to a complete misunderstanding on the Hog Question, a band of Ferguson Commissioners have been at work, night and day, for upwards of 243 years, in producing the above illustrations.
